

How YOU can be involved?

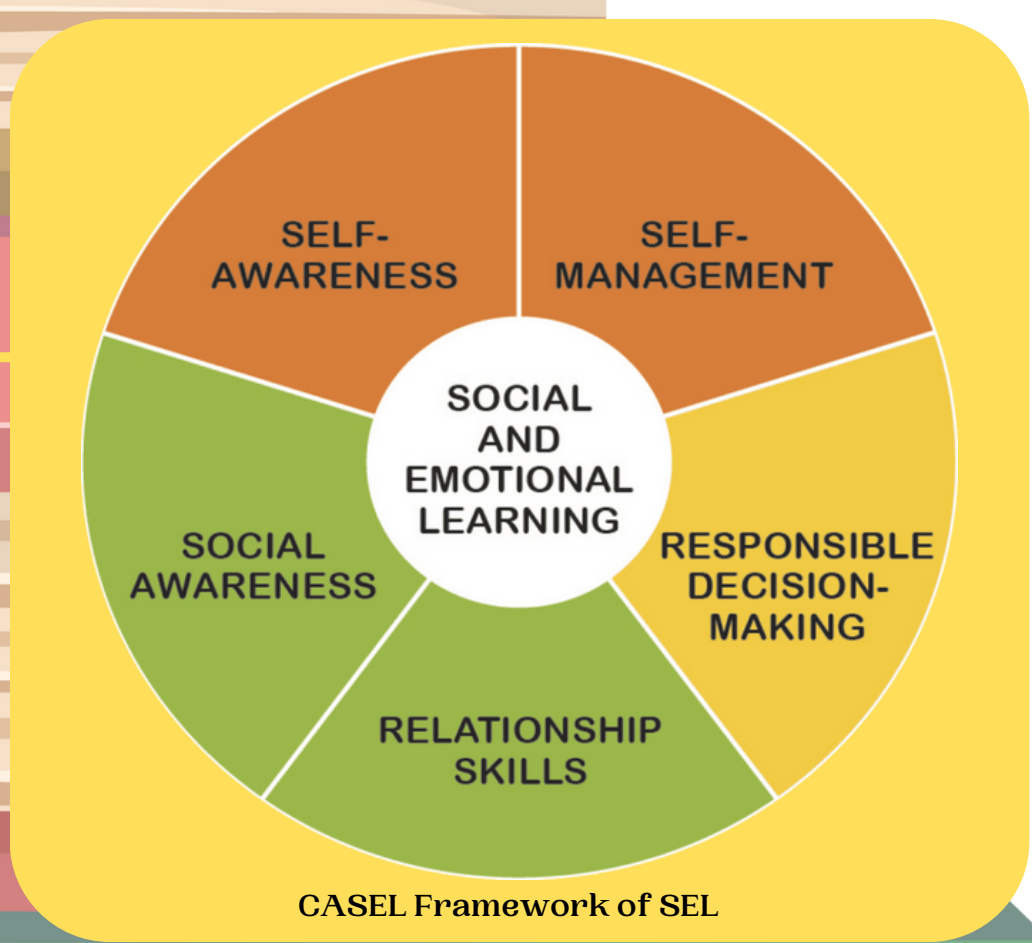

In order to make our app successful we are seeking input from educators. Our interviews and survey are designed to understand what educators need from us!

What could our app help with?

How can our app be a doorway through all the SEL obstacles you face?

What can SEL bring your classroom?

Who WE are?
We are a team of the Social-Emotional and Character Development Lab at Rutgers University. We are currently seeking the input from educators on what is most important to you in an SEL app.
